

Community Organizing Fellowship

Woori Center | Part-Time (10 - 15 hours/week)

- Location: Hybrid, Greater Philadelphia & Montgomery County
- Term: September 21, 2025 - December 4, 2026
- Reports to: Lead Community Organizer
- Pay: $20/hour

Who We Are: Established in late 2018, Woori Center's mission is to organize Korean and Asian Americans to achieve social, racial, and economic justice. Serving the Greater Philadelphia, Woori Center empowers the most vulnerable community members including the low-income, recent immigrant, limited English proficient, undocumented, youth, women, and seniors. Through education, social service, community organizing, public policy advocacy, civic participation, and arts & culture programs, Woori Center ensures that these community members can impact progressive change at the local and state levels. Woori Center is an affiliate of, and fiscally sponsored by, National Korean American Service & Education Consortium (NAKASEC).

Role Overview

The Community Organizing Fellow will support Woori Center's civic engagement, campus outreach, and community programming efforts. This opportunity is ideal for students who are passionate about grassroots organizing, Asian American advocacy, and building stronger communities.
